

On Saturday December 18 Chesapeake United Methodist welcomed the community to a Christmas party so they could meet Pastor Chuck Case who began his appointment here in July.

The party had been preceded by community canvassing on December 4. Anticipation was great as the day approached.

The day turned out to be very calm, even if it was just 32 degrees outside. Young and old alike made their way to the church to meet Pastor Chuck. Over 100 visitors were welcomed and treated to horse drawn carriage rides, and a chance to get a picture taken while sitting on Santa's lap.

Each guest made an ornament for their tree, and enjoyed cookies and hot cocoa.

Door prizes from Wal Mart, Kroger, South Point Comfort Suites, The Flower Shop, and Dave's Exxon were awarded.
